INVITATION FROM ERO

To the Huntly College whānau,

Since 2019 a small team from the Education Review Office has been working with the leaders and teachers of Huntly College in their journey to deliver the best possible learning to your children.

ERO would like to hear what you think. As whānau you are part of that journey and your voice is important. On Wednesday October 21 at 4pm, John Witana and Karen McClutchie, along with other members of the ERO team, will hold a hui for whānau at the school. This will be a time for you to share, for us to listen and it will help us to be better connected with your thoughts about Huntly College.
